

CHANDA ANDREWS

Chanda has over 15 years of experience as a trainer and coach for Global Fortune 500 firms across a range of sectors, particularly in highly matrixed and/or heavily regulated environments.

BACKGROUND

Chanda's areas of focus include leadership, cross-functional collaboration; communication; influence and negotiation. Her work spans a variety of industries including professional services, oil and gas, bio pharma, and technology.

Chanda originally developed her understanding of leadership, negotiation and collaboration as core business competencies while serving as the Head of Legal Affairs for a multi-national corporation headquartered in Malaysia. There, Chanda led the team that designed and implemented a transformational negotiation initiative. Chanda has seen how companies can accelerate progress by transforming employees' skills. She knows first hand how to make those behaviors "stick" — creating sustainable and meaningful, organizational change — internally to achieve alignment more efficiently and externally to advance the business.

Chanda has a BA, Law Honours Degree from the University of Nottingham, United Kingdom.
